

Cincinatti After the Fest

Each Labor Day weekend, the world renown Rozzi Family are the highlight of the annual RiverFest as they light up the sky with award winning fireworks.

Daybreak on the Way to Logan

Catching sunrises such as this in Winthrop, MA make the early morning drives to Logan Airport worth getting up so early for.

Linen Waves

Romantic dinners for two are a special treat in some Caribbean resorts. Watching them prepare for such an evening can be equally relaxing.

Liquid Jelly

There is nothing more fascinating than to sit and watch these lovely creatures glide gracefully through the water. Visit the New England Aquarium to see them.

Drawn In

ROCKPORT'S trade mark is the dark red shack on Bearskin Neck wharf. Motif No. 1 is recognized in far-away places, thanks not only to visitors who spread its fame, but to the innumerable paintings and prints that have carried its likeness abroad. One story says that a Yankee traveling in South America found a picture of the house: it had been painted in Czechoslovakia. He brought it to his home in New Hampshire.

East River at Dusk

The Blue Hour is the time just after sunset when the sky is a deep blue. The golden lights of NYC against this deep blue is a sight to behold.

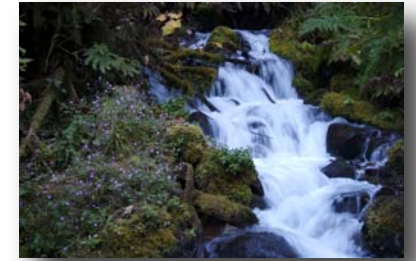

Moshup Beach

One of the world's most beautiful beaches can be found on the southwestern tip of Martha's Vineyard, an island off the shore of Massachusetts.

Waterfall Trekking

Wahkeena Falls is unique among the major waterfalls in this section of the Columbia River Gorge. There are also many small falls like this that line the route to the head of the river.

Good Friday

There is nothing more inspiring than the fabulous sunsets in the Bahamas. This shot comes from a glorious Friday night sunset in Nassau.

Lake Walk

One of the coldest evenings this past winter compelled a walk at Masebesic Lake in Manchester, NH to capture these beautiful colors.

Tale of Two Shores

Standing on the Cambridge side of the Charles River, overlooking the Boston skyline in the wee hours of the morning.

The Little Fish Shack Which Refused to Go Away

Motif #1 is one of the most photographed icons of New England situated in Bearskin Neck Wharf in Rockport, MA.

